Course Evaluation Methods

This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course.

- 2 Online Assignments – 25+25 = 50 points (10% of total grade)
- 5 Quizzes – 10 +10 + 10 +10 +10 = 50 points (10% of total grade)
- 3 Projects – 100 + 100 +100 = 300 points (60% of total grade)
- 1 Presentation – 100 points (20% of total grade)

Online Assignments

#1 – Inspirational Videos (25 points) (Found under Course Information Link)

On the link below, you will find 11 videos produced by nonprofit organizations.

<https://www.classy.org/blog/11-nonprofit-videos-that-inform-and-inspire/>

Watch all of the videos (each video is 2 minutes - 5 minutes in length). Select three of the videos that you find most inspirational and write 1-3 paragraphs on each of the three videos. (Do not write more than 3 paragraphs.) Make sure to answer the questions below in your paragraphs. This should be written as a narrative, not as a question – answer assignment. Submit your paper online to Inspirational Videos Assignment found in the Course Information link on Blackboard.

1. What was compelling about this video?
2. What were the strengths of their storytelling?
3. Does this video inspire you to . . . donate? volunteer? take some action?
4. Did you connect personally/emotionally to this video? In what way?
5. How do you believe this video helps the organization in their fundraising efforts?

Format of paper: Use APA style (title page, 1" margins, 12 pt. Times New Roman font, double-spaced, APA sub-headings, page numeration)

Title: Inspirational Videos

3 Section-Headings - Name of Charity of selected video for each heading

Use APA citations for each video. For help with APA style: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

Percentage	Percentage of Semester Grade	Possible Points	Grade
Video 1 - All questions answered clearly and eloquently		6
Video 2 - All questions answered clearly and eloquently		6
Video 3 - All questions answered clearly and eloquently		6
Writing - Good sentence construction; few grammatical errors; limited use of first person; written in active (rather than passive) voice		4
APA Style - title page, headings, font, spacing, citations (see APA handbook or Owl Purdue APA website for examples/guidelines)		3
Total		25

#2 Develop a Personal Philosophy of Philanthropy (25 points) (Found under Course Information Link)

Use the “Developing a Personal Philanthropy Plan to help you define what elements are important to you when you consider charitable giving. Imagine that you have a family foundation. Write a personal philanthropy plan in the style of the three samples provided: Include a mission statement and Guiding Principles. Submit your plan online.

Projects:

Case Statement – Due Jan 28

Grant – Due February 17

Annual Fundraising Plan Part I (a,d,e,f)– Due Feb. 24

Annual Fundraising Plan Part II (a, g, h, i) – Due Mar 3

(Final plan, includes all sections & Case for Support) – Due March 10

Presentation – March 3 (Sections a,d,e,f,g,h,i)

Annual Fund Plan Assignment/Presentation:

You are required to produce a fundraising plan for the annual fund of a nonprofit or charitable organization of your choice.

Your annual fund plan should be written in order to be read and implemented by a senior member of the management team. It is thus a practical document that should utilize the theory you will learn during the course to inform the analysis you undertake. While this is a practical document you must still reference any course material or ideas that you use in your plan.

Use the following guidelines to structure your assignment.

- a) Cover Page – to include title, time period addressed in the plan, author, name of organization/product and, if appropriate, any confidentiality restrictions.
- b) Executive Summary – one page summary of the main proposals in the fundraising plan
- c) Table of Contents – detail of key sections and sub-sections.
- d) Vision/Mission
- e) Organizational Objectives
- f) Fundraising Audit (PEST analysis, competitor analysis, collaboration analysis, market analysis)
- g) SWOT Analysis
- h) Fundraising Objectives
- i) Fundraising Strategies (Overall direction, segmentation targeting, positioning, Case for Support)
- j) Tactics (Individual – direct response, individual – major gift, corporate, trust/foundation)
- k) Budget/Schedule
- l) Monitoring/Control
- m) Appendices (if applicable)

Your approach throughout should reflect the highest standards of professional practice and should be guided by the AFP code of ethics.

Criteria	Possible points
Part I turned in complete and on time	5
Part II turned in complete and on time	5
Vision/Mission	5
Specification of Fundraising Objectives	5

- D = 60 – 69 %
- F = less than 60%

University Policies and Procedures

Students with Disabilities (ADA Compliance):

Chapter 7(7.004) Disability Accommodations for Students

The University of North Texas at Dallas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodations must first register with the Disability Services Office (DSO) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the DSO will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, DSO notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet/communicate with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Disability Services Office website at <http://www.untDallas.edu/disability>. You may also contact them by phone at 972-338-1777; by email at UNTDdisability@untDallas.edu or at Building 2, room 204.

Blackboard Learn Accessibility Statement:

University of North Texas at Dallas is committed to ensuring its online and hybrid courses are usable by all students and faculty including those with disabilities. If you encounter any difficulties with technologies, please contact our ITSS Department. To better assist them, you would want to have the operating system, web browser and information on any assistive technology being used. Blackboard Learn course management system's accessibility statement is also provided: <http://www.blackboard.com/Platforms/Learn/Resources/Accessibility.aspx>

NOTE: Additional instructional technology tools, such as Turnitin, Respondus, Panopto, and publisher cartridge content (i.e. MyLab, Pearson, etc.) may NOT be fully ADA compliant. Please contact our Disability Office should you require additional assistance utilizing any of these tools.

Course Evaluation Policy:

Student's evaluations of teaching effectiveness is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT Dallas. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider students' evaluations to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Assignment Policy: (According to the instructor's discretion while working in concert with the division/program's guidelines).

Exam Policy: (Online exams and the ability to retake is solely at the instructor's discretion). NOTE: Online exams may be proctored on campus per instructor's discretion.

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University's code of Academic Integrity policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Academic Integrity at http://www.untDallas.edu/sites/default/files/page\_level2/pdf/policy/7.002%20Code%20of%20Academic\_Integrity.pdf for complete provisions of this code.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabrication of information or citations, facilitating acts of dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, or tampering with the academic work of other students.

Web-based Plagiarism Detection: Please be aware in some online or hybrid courses, students may be required to submit written assignments to Turnitin, a web-based plagiarism detection service, or another method. If submitting to Turnitin, please remove your title page and other personal information.

Classroom Policies

Online Attendance and Participation:

The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. Class attendance in the Blackboard classroom and participation is expected because the class is designed as a shared learning experience, and because essential information not in the textbook will be discussed in the discussion board. Online presence and participation in all class discussions is essential to the integration of course material and your ability to demonstrate proficiency. .

Attendance for this online or hybrid course is considered when you are logged in and active in Blackboard, i.e., posting assignments, taking quizzes, or completing Discussion Boards. To maintain financial aid award eligibility, activity must occur before the census date of the session or term of the course. Refer to <http://www.untDallas.edu/registrar> for specific dates. If you are absent/not active in the course shell, it is YOUR responsibility to let the instructor know immediately, upon your return, the reason for your absence if it is to be excused. All instructors must follow university policy 7.005 covering excused absences; however, it is the instructor's discretion, as outlined in the course syllabus, of how unexcused absences may or may not count against successful completion of the course

Inclement Weather and Online Classes: Online classes may or may not be effected by campus closures due to inclement weather. Unless otherwise notified by your instructor via e-mail, online messaging, or online announcement, students should assume that assignments are due as scheduled.

Online “Netiquette:

In any social interaction, certain rules of etiquette are expected and contribute to more enjoyable and productive communication. Emails, Discussion Board messages and/or any other forms of written communication in the online environment should use proper “netiquette” (i.e., no writing in all caps (usually denotes yelling), no curse words, and no “flaming” messages (angry, personal attacks).

Racial, ethnic, or gender slurs will not be tolerated, nor will pornography of any kind.

Any violation of online netiquette may result in a loss of points or removal from the course and referral to the Dean of Students, including warnings and other sanctions in accordance with the University’s policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Student Rights Responsibilities and Conduct at <http://www.untDallas.edu/osa/policies>. Respect is a given principle in all online communication. Therefore, please be sure to proofread all of your written communication prior to submission.

Diversity/Tolerance Policy:

Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions in the online environment. However, offensive & inappropriate language (swearing) and remarks offensive to others of particular nationalities, ethnic groups, sexual preferences, religious groups, genders, or other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated. Disruptions which violate the Code of Student Conduct will be referred to the Dean of Students as the instructor deems appropriate.

Technology Requirements: In order to successfully access the materials in an online or hybrid course, UNT Dallas advises that your computer be equipped with the minimum system requirements.

Blackboard Learn 9.1 is the platform software for this course. Blackboard Learn supports major web browsers such as Windows Internet Explorer, Apple Safari, Mozilla Firefox, and Google Chrome. However, since the latter two are updated continually, some recent versions may not be compatible. If you experience difficulty accessing or using components of the course, try using Internet Explorer. Also, no matter what browser you use, always enable pop-ups. For more information see:
